BRISTOL
LEARNING CITY

/bristolcourses

@bristolcourses

Welcome

I am delighted to welcome you to the 2019/20 Adult Learning course guide.

In my role as Cabinet Member for Education and Skills I get to see the impact of a whole range of learning activities across the city.

Many people choose a course to develop particular skills and knowledge but we also know that being part of group learning activities can play a significant role in our mental health and wellbeing. Helping us to meet people, socialise and share the fun of learning together.

As part of the wider Bristol Learning City initiative to encourage and promote learning, I am really proud of the role Bristol City Council are playing in providing and developing lifelong learning opportunities for residents.

It is fantastic that Adult Learning have such a wide range of courses that allow people to take a short workshop, a longer programme of study or an intensive course.

There are courses here that will challenge and inspire you and I hope you find the right activity for your ongoing learning journey.

Best Wishes

CLlr Anna Keen

Film Studies

Film Studies

NEW Remembering Agnès Varda

Described by Peter Bradshaw as “the eternally youthful soul of world cinema”, Agnès Varda died in 2019 after an over 60-year long career in cinema. Her films are always completely personal, full of creativity, vitality, poetry and humanity. We will celebrate this great artist watching clips, interviews, some of her greatest works, and reading articles and essays. There will be a £5 DVD hire fee payable directly to the tutor.

Mondays	4pm to 6.30pm	Davide Ariasso	5 sessions	23 September	£81	£51	D42A
---------	---------------	----------------	------------	--------------	-----	-----	------

NEW Mini film festival: Film Is a Woman

A chance to see complete films with an introduction and discussion. This mini-festival is dedicated to six great works by female directors, including “Orlando” (Sally Potter, 1992), “Beau Travail” (Claire Denis, 1999), and “Morvern Callar” (Lynne Ramsay, 2002). There will be a £5 DVD hire fee payable directly to the tutor.

Mondays	4pm to 7pm	Davide Ariasso	5 sessions	4 November	£96	£60	D42B

NEW Classic Films about Childhood

When the main characters are children, a film can often experiment with adventurous, strange and enchanting storytelling. The best films about childhood seem to be those that approach the complexity of the youthful experience with an adult awareness but allow themselves to reflect the magic of a child’s point of view. We will watch a few classic films like “The 400 Blows (Truffaut, 1959), Zéro de conduite (Jean Vigo, 1933), “Night of the Hunter” (Charles Laughton, 1955), Ren   Cl  ment’s Forbidden Games (1952), Carol Reed’s Fallen Idol (1948). There will be a £5 DVD hire fee payable directly to the tutor.

Mondays	4pm to 6.30pm	Davide Ariasso	5 sessions	13 January	£81	£51	D42C

NEW Film, Poets and Poetry

What is the relationship between poetry and film? And between film and poets? What is a poetry film? We will explore these questions through films about poets, like “The Colour of Pomegranates” (Sergei Parajanov) and “Paterson” (Jim Jarmusch), films inspired by poets (“Songs from the Second Floor” by Roy Andersson), a story where poetry means self-discovery (“Poetry” by Chang-dong Lee), and poetry films by avant-garde artists. There will be a £5 DVD hire fee payable directly to the tutor.

Fridays	1pm to 3.30pm	Davide Ariasso	5 sessions	6 March	£81	£51	D42D

NEW Transgender Films

We will look at how transgender people are represented in films, particularly in those works that move away from the stereotypes of earlier films. The Nineties inaugurated a new wave of transgender-themed films and in recent years, the topic has become more mainstream, with more film-makers exploring ways to convey transgender experiences with honesty and empathy. Some of the films we will explore include: “Ma Vie en Rose” (1997), “Boys Don’t Cry” (1999), “Wild Side” (2004), “Tangerines” (2015). There will be a £5 DVD hire fee payable directly to the tutor.

Fridays	1pm to 3.30pm	Davide Ariasso	4 sessions	24 April	£66	£42	D42E

NEW The Murky World of Neo-Noir

We will focus on the new-waves of noir-infected films from the 60’s to today. What differences will we find between classic noir and neo-noir? Will those murky private-eye flicks get even murkier in their updated versions? There will be a £5 DVD hire fee payable directly to the tutor.

Fridays	1pm to 3.30pm	Davide Ariasso	4 sessions	5 June	£66	£42	D42F

Gardening

Gardening

Please note that all our gardening courses are classroom based and, for a variety of reasons, cannot involve practical gardening outside. The only exceptions are the 'Pruning' course, during which learners will spend some time outside pruning trees and bushes, if the weather allows, and the 'Tree Identification' course, during which learners will look at and identify trees around the Stoke Lodge Centre, weather permitting.

NEW Japanese Gardens: A Journey of Creation and Imagination

We will unravel the mystique of Japanese gardens, exploring their history and influence. The course will also cover various garden styles, how to avoid kitsch features, the proper use of water, plants and stone. The course is taught by a professional garden designer who grew up in the Far East. The course aims to enable learners to understand oriental culture, analyse key elements of Japanese gardens and design one themselves.

British and European History

Peace and Conflict in Europe 1815-1870

The age of Bismarck and Garibaldi still fascinates. We study how the great political forces - conservatism and liberalism, nationalism and socialism - contended for the hearts and minds, and in times of war or revolution, the lives of Europeans.

Mondays	7pm to 9pm	John Stevens	10 sessions	23 September	£126	£76	HPCE

NEW The European Power Struggle, 1870-1919

Was the First World War inevitable or accidental? We study the national and international tensions that exploded in 1914 and conclude by examining the course and outcome of the conflict that changed the world for ever.

Mondays	7pm to 9pm	John Stevens	10 sessions	13 January	£126	£76	HEPS

NEW Europe, America and the World in the Nineteenth century

Adopting a world perspective we study among other things the American Civil War, the modernisation of China and Japan and the British and other European Empires. All in all, a tumultuous time.

Mondays	7pm to 9pm	John Stevens	8 sessions	27 April	£102	£62	HEAW

British Political Mavericks, 1660-2014

From Lord Shaftesbury in the C17 to Nye Bevan and Enoch Powell, we look at famous figures who have challenged the political establishment. Some are Right-wing, some Left-wing, others harder to categorise. All are fascinating.

Wednesdays	1.15pm to 3.15pm	John Stevens	12 sessions	11 September	£150	£90	HBPM

Politics in Historical Perspective

Few of today's political issues are wholly new. We look at questions like Northern Ireland, devolution, EU membership and many others, adopting a historical perspective going back two or three hundred years, or even longer.

Wednesdays	1.15pm to 3.15pm	John Stevens	11 sessions	15 January	£138	£84	HPHP

They Made History: Great Historians and their Works

History is not set in stone. Much depends on the men and women who write it, be they Catholics, Protestants or atheists, conservatives, liberals or socialists. Gibbon, Macaulay and AJP Taylor come under scrutiny, with many others less well known.

Wednesdays	1.15pm to 3.15pm	John Stevens	8 sessions	22 April	£102	£62	HTMH

Early Tudor England 1485-1547

If you enjoyed reading or watching Wolf Hall or the Shardlake stories, come and learn about Henry VIII and Anne Boleyn, Thomas Cromwell and many others - and find out that fact is every bit as fascinating as fiction.

Wednesdays	7pm to 9pm	John Stevens	10 sessions	25 September	£126	£76	HETW
Thursdays	1.15pm to 3.15pm	John Stevens	10 sessions	26 September	£126	£76	HETT

Later Tudor England 1547-1603

We explore "Good Queen Bess"s reign and see, among much else, the nation challenged by the Spanish on the sea and Catholicism and radical Puritanism at home - the genius of Shakespeare meanwhile reaching its full fruition.

Wednesdays	7pm to 9pm	John Stevens	10 sessions	15 January	£126	£76	HLTW
Thursdays	1.15pm to 3.15pm	John Stevens	10 sessions	16 January	£126	£76	HLTT

The European Reformation 1500-1650

What happened when the authority of the Catholic Church broke down in the 1520's and the Protestant Churches and rising nations struggled for supremacy with Rome, and with each other. A story whose interest is by no means merely religious.

Wednesdays	7pm to 9pm	John Stevens	8 sessions	29 April	£102	£62	HERW
Thursdays	1.15pm to 3.15pm	John Stevens	8 sessions	30 April	£102	£62	HERT
